

What is a bioinformatics workflow?

A bioinformatics workflow is the collection of scripts, programs, and procedures you use to transform your data into a paper.

Goals for the course